(Sl 5.)

In his letter No. 1,708/11th Sept. 1900 the Presidt of the Mysore city Municl Commrs requested sanction to the entertainment of 7 additional orderlies of Rs 4 each per mensem on the ground that there are on the Board 14 non-official members and the present strength, viz., 7 orderlies, is insufficient as resolved by the Board ~~that each member should be provided with an orderly~~ at the rate of one for each Comr

(Sl 6.)

2- Thereupon the Presidt was in this office docketed- No. 552 of 1907-94 of 19th Octr 1900, informed that in the Bangalore city there ~~are~~ were only 10 orderlies for Municl Commrs, and he was requested to state whether a like number or 3 additional to the existing 7 would not be sufficient. He was further informed that the question of of abolishing the orderlies given to Immt Commrs of the city of Bangalore was under consideration of that Board (Vide para 7 of City Immt Boards Prov: of 30th August 1900)

3. In reply to the above the Presidt of the Mysore city Immt Board now in his No 390 of 4th Decr last states that the Board is of opinion that 14 orderlies are very necessary so as to give one for each Commr and requests sanction to the entertainment of the addl orderlies. Provision to be made in the supplemental budget.

Information was accordingly called for in Ler nos: 8 & 9

As regards the first point, the President of the Bangalore City Municl Council states that the question was referred to the Sub-Committee appointed to consider what savings were possible in the Municl expenditure, that the Sub-Committee opined that the existing arrangement should continue, and that their report was approved by the Board in their resolution of the 27th Septr 1900

re abolition of Municl Commr ordered

With regard to the 2nd point, the President of the Mysore City Municipal Board reports that the duties of the orderlies in question are:-

1. To accompany the Munsif Commrs: while on Jamabandi work as also on inspection work to dispose of petitions for licenses to build or extend houses; and for remission of taxes &c; to check parties concerned and ~~to~~ render other necessary help.

2. To carry covers to and from Municipal office

The President considers, therefore, that each Munsif Commr: may be allowed an orderly peon instead of two Commrs. having one between them "as at present"
